“ Hello Viki & Charlene...You and your family have my deepest sympathy during this time of sorrow, know that GOD will comfort you...He did me. I remember when your mother would come out on the job in her Volvo, a dear lady with a warm smile and a good look. I was reading the Sunday Post paper and saw the name Fagyal and thought of you & up and behold it's you. You're the only one I know with that name, like I'm the only one I know with my name...Whigom. Thank GOD for your mother. I'll always remember the cherished times we shared together. Much love to you and yours. My email is: cwhigom@yahoo.com

“ I have many fond memories of Eugenia, conversation was always easy, and her knowledge extensive. She had 98 years of memories and was willing to share them; I thought it was great—she was great!
Eugenia was a an ardent supporter of the St. Louis Genealogical Society, being one of it's first members. Until recently, it was very common to see her at meetings and functions.
I have known Eugenia for only a short time compared to her 98 years and am thankful that I have had that opportunity.
