“ When Jarrod was little he said he wanted to catch birdies. So we went out and I had him lay on his back. I put a circle with string on his belly, and gave him both ends, then put bread on his belly and told him lay very quiet, not to scare the birds when one landed on his belly to get the bread to pull the string tight and he would catch a birdie. I giggled and went back inside. We all watched him for about two hours and he got tired of waiting. He came in and said he didn't catch a bird and was tired of waiting, then looked up and said I think I was tricked, we laughed so hard tears were rolling. Just one of MANY memories, I'll cherish for ever... God bless you my oldest son. Love always your father, Horror Parker. Hope to see you all soon!!!

“ Its been some time since I lost my older brother to dmd. He was an amazing person loved video games and fried chicken. Dont even get me started on Star Wars!!! He especially loved his family and wished nothing more than for everyone's happiness. Today I remember him as he would want and think back fondly on the time we had together.

“ To the Family.

I am sorry for the lost of your family member and dear friend. I have an encouraging message that I would like to share with you from God's Word the Bible.

Like many people we all want to live and enjoy life with the ones we have lost to this aged-old-enemy death. Sadly, though because of health issues, injustice, crimes and old age we have to suffer the pain when ones fall asleep in death.

In the Bible at John 5:28,29 Christ Jesus states that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. These ones according to Psalm 37:11 will be resurrected right here on the earth.

The Bible also gives us comfort and hope at Revelation 21:3-5 which assures us that the day is soon to come in which our Heavenly Father is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more.

I hope that after reading this that it will be of comfort to each of you.
