“ To the family of a lovely lady. Sam as we all knew her at Aetna became a dear friend and will be greatly missed. She and Millie and Doris and I tried to get together for lunch at least once a year. I truly regret we did not make the 2014 lunch and that it had been a while since we spoke. She was always so upbeat on the phone and we laughed a lot reminiscing about the good ole Aetna days. Halloween was always our favorite holiday because we went all out. One year we were all ghosts but the funniest was when all of the women dressed as men. It was a contest between the different departments so we were pretty serious about it. Goofy now that I think back on it but I will always think of her on Halloween.

Polly we heard all about you growing up. In recent years I heard a lot about how special your daughter was to your mom.

Just know that Sam meant a lot to a lot of Aetna folks and more to me. It was an honor to have her as a friend and I will treasure her memory.

God bless.
