“ This poem was read at Kathy's service, by her sister Gretchen, as she felt it was a message that Kathy would send to all she knew.

Relinquished

Her light is not extinguished
Only her body is relinquished.
The sparkle she exhibited
Will never be inhibited

Every piece of stardust twinkle
Every work of Love generously sprinkled
Shines as bright as a Gorious Nova
Only her earthly life is over.

As the heavens accept her energy
Know you are wrapped
In her loving synergy.

Occasionally, on this gravity filled earth
We're unsure of our celestial worth.

There's a reason for our humble birth
And a season to our earthly hearth.

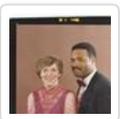

Remember her with laughter
As she's accepted into the ever-after
Her light is not extinguished
Only her body is relinquished.

through the grace of God
She lifted with a nod
Feel her smiling spirit brightly lit
Her melody has amplified
"Do you hear it"?

She is home, her eternal Glorious Gift
In God's brilliant star light, she doth drift
Her light is not extinguished
Only her body is relinquished
Oh no, her light is not extinguished
Only a tired vessel is relinquished.

“ This poem was read at Kathy's service by her sister Gretchen who felt it sounded like a message Kathy would want to send to her son, Matthew.

Child of Mine

He walked toward me surrounded by light
I couldn't believe the miraculous sight.
It couldn't be him, I knew his is dead,
But when I looked at him, I saw him shake his head.

I did not die, I am still here
Look into your heart, I'll always be near.
My body died, yes, but not my soul
You never have to let me go.

Speak my name, talk to me
It really is simple if you believe.

My spirit is here, I'm still around
My love for you can still be found.

Don't weep for me, shed no more tears
Remember the good times over the years.
Our time together did not end,
One day we'll be together again.

So, whenever you're lonely or feeling sad
Look back on the wonderful years we had.
One day God will call you, and bring you home
You'll be right here with me, where you belong.

Until that time comes, live your life well
I'll be here for you, if you need my help.
Be happy, be gracious be loving and kind
Please know I'm still with you, child of mine.

“ This poem was read at Kathy's service by her sister Gretchen who felt it sounded like something that Kathy would wish to share:

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up you heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

“ I will forever cherish the guidance and compassion you taught me as we worked together. Our last convo you said what you wanted and I am glad you were granted that wish. I miss you tremendously.
Forever the daughter you never had(your words)

“ I'm glad that Kathy and I had the opportunity to mend our relationship a couple of years ago, and to spend some extended time together during our road trip to New Mexico. I will cherish that trip and only wish we had been able to take another one together! My sister took her solo journey, but I am sure she will be there waiting for all when it is our time to join her.

Love you sis!
