This is not how this poem was written or is supposed to look. Apparently this web-site doesn't post words how they are written.

I remember a lot of great times at the club house with Wesley. We all had wonderful times together. I remember sitting on his John Deere tractors and my grandparents (Ray & Kay Austin) playing cards with Helen on Saturday nights. He always had a Stag beer in his hand.

Sorry for your loss I was glad I new him for so many years.
