

Anna Belle Pace

November 9, 1927 - November 8, 2021

Anna Belle Pace (nee Hancock), of the greatest generation, peacefully entered into rest on November 8, 2021 at the age of 93. Loving wife of the late Ike Pace, beloved mother of Greg and Terri, grandmother of Travis and great grandmother of Ella. Loved by her extended family of Shirley, Heather, Haedyn, Brookelyn, Crystal, Brayden, and Jeff. Anna grew up on a farm in Doniphan, MO then moved to the City and married a WWII sailor. She raised a family, sold Tupperware and earned an associates degree. She retired from the St. Louis County Library (Indian Trails branch). She was an accomplished bowler and loved Blues hockey. RIP mom.

Services are private, through Valhalla Chapel.

Tribute Wall

“ Ann was remarkable. She also taught me a lot as I worked with her in the library. I will never forget her. Lynn

---

Lynn - November 16, 2021 at 03:54 PM