

Mrs. Barbara M. Roeseler

May 8, 1940 - November 18, 2018

Barbara M. Roeseler, passed away November 18, 2018 at her home, surrounded by her loving family.

She was born in Somerville, Massachusetts to John Edward and Mary [nee Connolly] Hixson.

Her first husband Ralph E. Silverwood passed away and later she married William B. Roeseler, and worked as a claims analyst for Clark Industrial Equipment Company.

Most of her life was spent living on a lake until moving to St Louis. During her life she loved the racetrack-especially the Kentucky Derby! She also spent a great deal of time boating and fishing [when she wasn't bowling or playing a hand or two of poker!] Her main love [other than UK-the University of Kentucky Wildcats] was her family, and she will be forever missed.

Surviving are two daughters: Deborah [Ron] Young and Kelly [Dan] Weiterman;

five grandchildren: Tara [Greg] Miller, Elizabeth Young, Brian Weiterman, Jessica Weiterman, Katie [Mark] Griggs; four great grandchildren: Grace, Ethan, Connor, Collin.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, two brothers: John Hixson, Jr. and Patrick Hamilton, Jr.

Visitation will held from 4-8 pm on Friday, November 23 at Valhalla Chapel of Memories, with Funeral Service on Saturday at 10 am. Interment Valhalla cemetery.

Memorial contributions to the SSM Hospice.

“ My best friend, my whole heart and my Gam. To have loved you and to have been loved by you has been my biggest blessing. You are the strongest, sweetest most graceful soul and going on without you will no doubt be the the hardest part of my journey. There won't be a day where I don't think of you, or a day I won't miss your beautiful smile and your contagious laughter. I love you more. Until we meet again!❤️
