“ Dear McGavock family, I am so sorry for your loss. Although this transition, dealing with the loss of a precious loved one, is one of life's most difficult, I know our Lord Jesus will be right there with you all. I will be holding all of you up in prayer during the weeks to come and asking God to bring comfort and peace to each of you.

Betty was such a giving person. It was a great blessing to attend church with her for many years and also live right down the street from her for several years. We were friends and I can assure you she will be missed by my family, and by multitudes of people that Betty knew and cared for.

With love,

“ Life will forever be changed with Betty gone from it. We are thankful for the many wonderful memories we have made through the years and look forward to seeing how she has our mansions rearranged and set up for us! Our prayers continue for the love of her life, Bill, and her three sons whom she was so very proud.

May God cover you with peace and comfort during this difficult adjustment!

Love always,

Garry and Lois Truman

“ This phase of life is very hard. Losing friends and family becoming a daily thing is rough. I am thankful for knowing I will see some again someday. It is hard to realize Betty is gone. She and Verla were a big part of our lives way back when. Time changes things. Spring, Summer, Fall and now it is Winter. So thankful for Jesus.

“ To the great McGavock family.....Hard to put in words the passing of such a great friend. I'm praying for peace for this family. Betty and I have been friends for years.

Had wonderful vacations together. Bill, my heart hurts for you. Betty was a first class lady and would do anything to help anyone. Someday, we will all meet Betty again.

Love you all.

“ How wonderful my life was enriched to have known and been apart of Betty’s friend. She was always uplifting and encouraging to me. I remember when she came by my pew in church and said ‘come on Rob let’s go to the alter and pray awhile, your momma ain’t here so it’s me your stuck with’ I will never forget the friendship I witnessed between Betty and my wife Jerolyn. Incredible and indescribable the relationship they had with one another. Betty knee that I loved Southern gospel music and she’d let me know who I needed to go see and here. I cherish the friendship that I had with Betty, I will miss her wittiness and the way she could pull folks up when they were down. Thank you God for allowing me to have 30+ years with Betty as my friend. I will miss you Betty.

“ I lived with Betty and Bill while attending Gateway (now Urshan). She was so kind and treated me like family. Betty was also wedding coordinator for my wife Hannah and I at New Life 21 years ago. She impacted countless people and truly had the gift of hospitality. We will miss you Betty!
