*“ Brent Young was truly my " brother from another mother". We met in Chicago in 2005. Our love of Godzilla and other Japanese monsters, Superman, and dinosaurs was the starting point for our steadfast friendship. We would talk for hours about these things and more. We would attend yearly conventions for Godzilla. Brent was the kindest, most sincere person you could ever hope to meet. He had and took time for everyone. And he was always smiling. Farewell my brother. I will NEVER forget you. I love you.

Your name is very familiar. Brent was such an amazing soul and always happy there's no doubt in my mind you added to that. Godzilla was a huge part and what made him happy that's one thing I will always remember about him.
