

Carol Morgan [Smith] Weidmer

May 26, 1937 - May 2, 2021

Carol Morgan (Smith) Weidmer ,passed away on Sunday May 2, 2021

Preceded in death by her husband, John (Jack) Wiedmer; her parents, Philip Platt and Virginia (Wright) Smith, and her brother, Philip Platt Smith, Jr.

Survived by: Her daughter, Frith Ann O'Brien (Bradley) of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida; her son, Michael Gavin McCarthy of St. Louis, and her three beloved grandchildren, Katie (Kathryn), Brooke, and Gavin, her niece Loriel (John) Brune, and nephew, Philip Platt Smith, III, many other nieces and nephews, and lifelong friends.

Carol was a direct descendent of the founding family of St. Louis. She was born with a strong, competitive spirit becoming an accomplished equestrian, but showing dogs became her life long passion. While she raised her children, she became a respected handler and breeder of champion Shetland Sheepdogs, Salukis, and Italian Greyhounds. She was a loved friend and mentor to many others throughout her lifetime.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to The AKC Museum of the Dog, or to an animal rescue shelter.
