“ The VOYCE family will dearly miss Charlie Morris who served as a volunteer ombudsman since the fall of 2015, making weekly visits to the nursing home residents at Delmar Gardens of O'Fallon. As a dedicated ombudsman, Charles made life better for countless residents by listening to their concerns and then working with the staff at Delmar Gardens to resolve issues in order to improve care for all the residents. Charlie served as one of 50 volunteer ombudsmen in Greater St. Louis who have a passion for those vulnerable individuals living in long-term care. He was a true voice of the residents - especially to those residents who had no family members or friends to speak on their behalf. Charlie will be deeply missed by the many volunteer ombudmen, staff, board and other supporters of VOYCE who operates the local Long Term Care Ombudsman Program.
