“ It was a great surprise to learn of Dan's passing. I had not seen him for a while and was wondering where he was. I was fortunate to visit with him several times during the Shriners circus events. He was the son of my first cousin Henry Novak.
My condolences to his family.

“ I'm so sorry for the loss of Dan. He will be greatly missed by my mom Ruth (his girlfriend). I can remember the first time I met Dan he was on his motorcycle when he pulled up to pick my mom up to go on a ride to grafton il. He was really nice and talked my ear off. He was there for my mom and all of us when my grandma passed away. RIP DAN you are gone but will never be forgotten.

“ Dan will truly be missed. I always loved the jokes he had to tell when we worked together at Warner Pontiac. We had a lot of fun times there. He was an amazing man. R.I.P. Dan
