

David Lee Jr.

October 12, 1949 - October 5, 2023

David Lee Jr. was born October 12, 1949 to the union of David and Mildred Lee in Yazoo City, Mississippi. Both parents, sister Dorothy Ritzer, and Barbara N. Lee all preceded him in death. He professed a hope in Christ at the age of eleven and was baptized at Second Baptist Church in Kinloch Missouri under the leadership of Reverend Paul Butler. Through the years David found the bible as his source of guidance and prayed for understanding and continued to grow in his faith.

David attended Sumner High and worked for Ford Motor Company for 30 years. David had a love for music. He was gifted with a voice for singing, was a member of the Greater Progressive Youth Choir, and mastered the bass guitar.

David was united in matrimony to Wilma Lee and to that union, two children, Dane Lee and Kimberly Lee, were born. Years later David Lee III and Danielle Lee, were born to David Lee and Dorothy Williams. In 2008 David was united in matrimony to Naomi Lee and remained united until he was called to his heavenly home.

David leaves to cherish his memories his wife Naomi, children Dane (LaDawn), Kimberly, David (Tonya), and Danielle. Stepchildren Erica and Dana (Ugo). Siblings Mary Conley, Albert Paul Lee, Aunt Mary Alice Brown, Brother-in-law Robert Ritzer, and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, in laws, and friends.
