

David William Steiner II

April 25, 1992 - January 10, 2021

David was born in St Peter's, Mo on April 25, 1992.

David had a variety of interests and passions that he was into; music, books, sports, nature, and taking care of animals. However, what defined David wasn't so much what he was into, but what was inside of him; love, empathy, kindness, and a sweet innocence that made a jaded world seem just a little less harsh. He greeted everyone with a smile that was radiant and a hug that was firmly comforting. When you were with David he made you feel at ease because he always looked for the good in others. We will miss him dearly and remember him forever. Parents, hug your kids.

Survivors include his Father: David William Steiner; one sibling: Anande Ozark; grandfathers: Ed O'Brien, Terry Young, several uncles, aunts, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his mother: Kelly Steiner;
two grandmothers Melba O'Brien and Kay Young; one grandfather Jack Steiner

“ I truly do not know how to come up with only one single memory. I knew David his entire life. I was only 3 when he was born. And, meeting the new baby cousin was one of my very first memories. They say cousins are your first best friends. This is so true for me. Growing up we were never very far. At one time our families even living under one roof. We made a million memories. Anything from waking up the whole house at 5 am with his infectious laughter because we couldn't start a day without watching Inspector Gadget first or even the more simple things like playing in the woods. And as we grew up it turned into talking to him about his first crush, his first love, and his first heartbreak. And him the same for me. Even being there with his eyes full of excitement and love when he came in meeting all of my babies. He just thought it was the most amazing thing that I was a mother. And that it meant he got to be the cool big cousin now. He was the one who would choose to sit at the kids table. Because he found something wonderful in everything they would say or do. My greatest memory of him though comes in many thousands. Because that is at least how many times I saw a smile on his face. I will never be able to forget it. It is a memory that will be with me everywhere I go. Reminding me that I need to keep smiling too. No matter what. Because he can't anymore. So, we need to do it for him. And, I will always remember with every smile that little baby, Little Dave that grew into such an amazing man. He was truly my first best friend. And, I will miss him more than I can express. But, that smile will always keep him with me.

“ I love you Grandpa! This is how David ended any conversation he had with me and if we were physically together it was not only the words he spoke but it was delivered with a smile and a big hug. He always wanted to something for me and asked nothing in return. David's mother and my daughter, Kelly lived with me for the most of the last 8 years of her life departing to her afterlife on October 22, 2020 and David live with us together for most of his last 18 months. Always a blessing for me. I love you David and will always have a smile on my face as I remember all of the wonderful memories you have provided for me.
