

Dolores Fenton

July 25, 1930 - September 7, 2022

Dolores was an extraordinary Woman as many were for their time. As social norms were changing during and after WW2 windows opened. Her parents gave her the opportunity to pursue her own path and she took off running. College Degree (music), Teamster (Yellow Freight), Business Owner (Classic Arts and Crafts / Artistry Inn Florist), Church Secretary (Trinity Tabernacle), Singer, Musician, and Composer. She was an extraordinary player of the piano, organ (air/electrical), harp, banjo, mandolin plus several other instruments. It was always amazing that she could step into a set at church or a family reunion and play whatever needed to be played and how she could pick up something and run with it. That was her way of doing things. Most importantly she was a loved and respected wife and mother that will be sorely missed.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Bert Tillman McGavock / Alpha McGavock; her husband: Glenn Fenton;
her brother and sister-in-law: Bert (Betty) McGavock;
her daughter: Kimberly Fenton.

She is survived by:
Son, Richard (Cheryl) Fenton;
2 grandchildren, Emma Grove, and Joseph Grove II (April);

2 great-grandchildren, Evan Kelly, and Arlow Grove.
and 3 nephews, Bert (Janie) McGavock II, Steve (Trudie) McGavock, Brian McGavock (Karina).
