“ Don was my husband since July 12,2003.He was a great dancer,jazz drummer and was always more fun than a barrel of monkeys.He loved to read, especially about history.He was virtually self-educated due to all of the reading.If you were in trouble,he was always the first one that would help you.I am really going to miss him, but I like to think of him as being up in heaven now.He's young again,he's dancing,listening to jazz and eating all the steak and pepperoni pizza he wants.I miss you terribly! “ Donald was my father. We lost touch after our parents divorce and the death of my brother. Every few months I looked for him on the internet but to no avail. I'm very saddened by this news but I know that Sue loved him very much and for that I am deeply grateful. Bless you Sue and thank you for taking such good care of him.
