

Mrs. Donna Lee [nee Batz] Reed-Masters

September 12, 1956 - November 3, 2014

Donna was married to the love of her life, Kenneth B Masters for 21 years. Together they enjoyed spending time with their best friends Mae and Euell Hatley - playing cards, listening to country music, and cheering for the Cardinals.

She was the beloved mother of Michael [Amy] Reed and Ryan [Helen] Reed; cherished step-mother of Kip [Susie] Masters and Brian Masters; adoring grandmother of Alexa, Maximus, Lacey, Levi, Ryan, Brandon, and Alyssa; and loving great grand mother of Corgan and Bentley.

She is survived by her sisters Linda [Gary] Ilseman and Bonnie [Elvard] Davis; and by many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Donna was preceded in death by her parents, Arthur and Betty Batz and one brother Gary Batz.

“ Will I don't know where to start. Donna was one of the finest people I will ever meet in my life. My husband died 9 yrs ago and Donna became the Guardian angel I need to move on in my life. Without Donna to help me I would have gave up. I talked to her on the 29th of October and told her thanks for being my friend. Little did I know it would be the last time I would see her. We will meet again. How blessed I was to see her all I can say is Thank you GOD AND DONNA. Thank you God for Donna.

“ Donna I lite this candle for you , From the time I meet you at Home Depot Donna , you was one smart lady with full of fire to do your job and help all you could . I am writing this for you with tears and a lump in my throat . You was what a friend ! Your had a lot of patiences to help anyone you could . I was sad to read and shocked to hear you went to be an angle , but you always was an angle . Thank you for you service at Home Depot and I sat on the home depot stools and we talked . You will be forever missed by many . Until we meet again please keep my home depot stool warm up on heaven . I will always miss you friend . To Donna's Family and friends I am truly sorry for your loss . She was one of a kind .
