

Mrs Dorothy Anna Walters

October 22, 1920 - March 4, 2015

Dorothy Anna was born in St Louis, to the late Tiffin R and Anna [nee Kral] Aebli.

She married Julian [Jim] Walters in St Louis [he preceded her in death on April 28, 1977].

Dorothy worked at John Fabick Tractor, and later became a very active member of the Ford Salaried retirees.

She loved birds, traveling on bus tours around the country, and ballroom dancing.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Nurses and Company Foundation.

“ My name is Michelle Gard Hirsch. Dorothy was my last living relative (cousin). She was my father's first cousin (Lynn Dallas Gard) . I have kept in touch with her but haven't heard from her in over one year. I live in Brookfield, Wisconsin and just found out that she passed in March.

I wish someone would have notified me about her passing since I have attempted to contact her since then.

I really miss her and am very sad to hear she died not long ago.

If anyone has any great memories they would like to share of her past year or so, I would love to hear from you.

*Thanks,
Michelle*

“ Dorothy was a Patriot and if the picture above doesn't give you the hint than let me elaborate! The Veterans here in St. Louis are forever grateful to Mrs. Walters for her kindness and dedication. Dorothy has shown our Heroes they are not forgotten yet fondly remembered for the sacrifices they have made to ensure our Nation's freedom.

She will live on in the hearts of our Veterans and their families.
