

Esther Mae Collins

February 27, 1938 - December 2, 2020

ESTHER was born February 27, 1938 in Brownsville, Tennessee to Sam Sails and Louise Sails. Preceding her in death was her parents, two children, Emanuel Collins (son) and Gwendolyn Moore (daughter).

Esther professed a hope in Christ at an early age. She attended St. Elizabeth. Esther was educated in the Saint Louis Public School System and attended three years at Forest Park Community College studying business.

Esther was married to Cleatho Collins. To that union four children were born. Esther was very well traveled She visited Hawaii, Paris, France, parts of Africa, various states in the U.S. and sailed to different islands on cruise ships. Esther retired from Commerce bank in 2000 after 25 years of service. Her customers would stand in long lines to be served by her. She was professional and didn't discriminate regardless to race or wealth. She took time to explain to those who needed her help.

Esther was a beautiful person with a beautiful smile. As a mother God couldn't have blessed us with a better friend, guardian and caregiver. She was very intelligent and had lots of wisdom to share. She definitely showed us we were loved. (She had our hand when we were young-she had our hearts forever.) She leaves to cherish her memory daughter, Arnita Logan; son, Terrance Collins (Rosalind); sister, Dorothy Ingram; three grandchildren, Tiffany Collins, Lauren Carothers and Aaron Collins; six great grandchildren, two nieces, Lawandia Ingram and Karren Cole and a host of other relatives and friends.

Services under the direction of Valhalla Funeral Chapel.
