“ I am truly saddened by Grant's passing. I've known Grant's paternal family all of my life. His grandmother was my family's beautician and our families were so close. We were family. That was before Grant was born. Years later, I met Grant. Just like his grandmother and his dad, he was a wonderful/great person. He was everything that everybody said he was and more. He valued and loved family and friends. I pray that God bless his mother, his sister, his sons and family. May the God who lifts our heads strengthen you, lift your head and walk with you through this period of life's journey.

“ No more "Hello Sweetie when I just happen to answer your cuz's cell phone and though I might not recognize the phone number, I quickly pick up on the deep voice on the other end and get that special little greeting that made me feel a little special. But now the Lord has called you for another purpose. I know He is saying " WELL DONE MY SON, WELL DONE". To the family, I send our love and strength during your time of grief. He is gone but never forgotten!!!

“ Wow, I'm saddened and shocked by Grant's death. He was a great cousin and a dependable person. He always greeted me with the biggest bear hug and smile and I will always remember that! I will miss him so at family gatherings. But, I will keep him in my heart forever. My deepest condolences to Kim, Aunt Daisy, Grant and Gary. I love you all and we will lean on the Lord during this difficult time.

“ I'm saddened by the fact that I had not seen my cousin in several years. I'm sorry that I didn't get the chance to say goodbye. This has caused the reality of the need for closeness within family to become very real to me. Grant you will truly be missed, though I never had the chance to say it to you, I do love you, and I look forward to seeing you again. RIP!

“ Grant, I echo the same as Charles... you will always be "my brother from another mother"... You will forever be with us through a countless memories....and we will cherish each one....as I type this through my tears... David is imitating you... which is making me laugh... I have no doubt that you will be forever with us.... We love you.... Jettie aka "Jettie Mae" (your nickname for me), David.... and Akila (She said Christmas Parties...and family gathering will not be the same without Uncle Grant)! Rest my brother...

I was very sad to hear about Grant's passing I worked with Grant in the past and work along side of him for the past months when he returned to Boeing. He was a great individual. I knew his Dad, his dad and I worked together for many years, he was also a great person. I know we will miss Grant a lot but he is home now. We will keep the family in our prayers.

With our sincere sympathy,

“ Grant you are going to be sorely missed my brother. I hate that you had to leave us like this, but I will always aiways carry you in my heart. You were family and my family and i are really torn up that you are gone. I pray to God that you have found the peace that you rightfully deserved. I hate that I can't be there to pay my last respect to you, but I know you will understand (I can hear you now - "Charlie shutup man you know I understand") Take Care My Brother and I will see you later on.
