

Mr. Harry Jackson Copley

September 14, 1952 - July 15, 2018

Harry J. Copley passed away July 15, 2018.

He was born in St Louis, Missouri to Charles and Phoebe [nee Gilbert] Copley.

A graduate of Kirkwood High School and Forest Park Community College, he worked as a Phlebotomist and Lab Technician at the V.A. Medical Center.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one sister: Ann Probst; one brother: Gil Copley; and also by his nephew John Gilbert Copley. .

Surviving loved ones include nieces Jessica Lucero nee Copley (Aaron), Elizabeth Hargrave nee Copley (Aaron), nephew Robert Copley (Amber), many great nieces and nephews, as well as first cousins, Tom Widmer, Vickie Bouldin, and Babs Gresko.

Ephesians 2:8-9 For by grace you are saved through faith, and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so that no one can boast.

We have confidence that Harry is alive now in Christ Jesus and reunified with family and friends who have passed before him. We thank the Lord for the faith that Harry held in his heart and shared with us.

Anyone wishing to honor Harry in memoriam may make donations in his name to the St. Louis Humane Society.

Services are private at Valhalla's Hillcrest Abbey.

Tribute Wall

DB

“ Harry I loved you like a brother. Harry graduated from Southwest High School, no Kirkwood. A great guy. Aee you on the other side buddy.

Dan Barden - October 05, 2019 at 10:18 PM

JL

Thanks for the info on where my Uncle went to highschool.

Jessica Lucero - March 05, 2022 at 12:53 AM

KH

“ Love you Harry, you were a great guy.

Karen Hecker - July 26, 2018 at 08:02 PM