He was not only a brother in law but a dear friend as well. We had many good times with him and Mona. Deer hunted and vacationed together among many other things. He will certainly be missed.

My Dad, Harry DuLany, taught me to love the St. Louis Cardinals. Starting in the late 1950s, we attended at least one game a year (sometimes several) at three different Busch Stadiums. I saw Stan Musial hit home runs several times, saw Bob Gibson win many games, saw Lou Brock steal dozens of bases, witnessed the excitement of Mark McGuire's pursuit of the home run record, etc. Many times, we went to Cardinals games with my cousin, Randy Eaton and his dad, my Uncle Frank. We put a 2016 Cardinals schedule in Dad's pocket, so he'll know when the game comes on the rest of this year. He also was given some infield dirt from the second Busch Stadium, placed in his pocket by his great-grandson, Wesley Ritrovato. Dad, I always cheer for both of us. Love you always - Steve “ My grandpa was a great man! One of the last of his kind. He worked hard and took pride in everything he did. His family was his fortune and he was a rich man. Having touched so many lives and always sacrificing for others. He will forever be in our hearts.
