“ I enjoyed riding my bike to Grandma's house when I was a kid. It was nice that we lived close by so I had the ability to do that. She taught me how to crochet and how to make a "granny square." In 1982, she took part in something that was very important in my life; helping my parents smuggle a piano into our house to surprise me. She had me come to her house to "help her with something" while the piano was brought into the house. This was a family effort in which she and Grandpa Kleine played a big part and I'll never forget that. She was a wonderful cook! My favorite 2 things she made were Pasta con Broccoli and Buckeyes. Thank you for these memories, Grandma! 'Till we meet again...and we will.... Love, Kim
