“ Henrietta was a dear dear friend for as long as we have been at Grace Church, 30+ years. She is the one who encouraged me to get my real estate license and just "knew" I would be good at it. We will miss you dear lady. The last time we visited you, you had fallen and were bleeding and thought you were going to die, so you went to bed.....and were disappointed when you woke up! You were in a lot of pain. So glad you are free now and in the arms of Jesus!
