

Herman Geller

October 23, 1930 - October 30, 2021

Herman was the youngest child born to Sam and Annie [nee Horowitz] Geller on October 23, 1930. He graduated from Washington University with a B.S. in Chemical Engineering in 1961 and spent most of his years in employment as a quality control supervisor.

He believed that being both mentally and physically strong were necessary ingredients to pursue a healthy and successful life. He enjoyed five-mile walks daily and continued his education well beyond his graduation from college. He was an avid sports enthusiast and on occasion went to the Alton Belle. He liked listening to good music - especially Barbra Streisand.

He will be missed by those who knew and loved him.

Survivors include- Pat [Dan] Boudria, Carey Timmerman, Laura [Herb] Golterman, Keith [Pat] Geller, seven grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his four brothers, and three sisters.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

The family wishes to express a sincere thank you to Unity Hospice and Kassandra Hardin for their care.

Services are private at Bellerive Indoor Mausoleum Chapel, under the direction of Valhalla Funerals.
