January 8, 1928 - April 3, 2025

Jean Norwine Krueger, 97, of Lake St. Louis, Missouri, passed away on April 3, 2025. Born on January 8, 1928, to Olin Dale and Lucille (Kingsland) Norwine. Jean lived a life full of love, compassion, and dedication to those around her.

Jean was a nurturing spirit, always surrounded by the warmth of her beloved animals. A proud dog and cat enthusiast, she found joy in the companionship of her furry friends throughout her life. For 31 years, Jean dedicated herself to shaping young minds as a kindergarten teacher. Her gentle approach and unwavering patience made a lasting impact on the lives of many children, instilling in them a love for learning that would stay with them long after they left her classroom.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William Charles Krueger; son, Jeffrey Lee Krueger; sister, Mildred Norwine Root; and brother, Robert Jackson Norwine.

Jean is survived by her sons: Jay Krueger and wife Holly of Alexandria, Virginia, and Greg Krueger and wife Elizabeth Gatto of Lake St. Louis, Missouri; grandchildren: Evan, Dylan, Jeffrey, and Elise; as well as great grandchildren: Oliver, Weston, Finian, and Lou.

A ceremony to celebrate Jean's life will be held at a later date. Jean will be cremated and will be laid to rest with her family at Valhalla Cemetery, 7600 St. Charles Rock Road, St. Louis, MO 63133.

“ Jean was a good friend of my mom's (Jean Dudding) who died a week before she did. They both taught kindergarten together in Webster Grove School District. They met every Friday at Straub's as part of a teachers social group. They remained friends through their retirement years. I spoke with Jean after my mother died in March and she was still very vibrant and full of stories. I hope they are chatting away in the afterlife.
