“ Chris, Rick and family, my deepest condolences for your loss. John was a great leader, boss, mentor and a legend at Mc Donnell Douglas and Boeing. I was so intimidated by him when I first met him as a young engineer and then grew to admire him so much as a boss and as an individual. I learned so much from him. He always spoke openly and to the point. I will always remember: "Pass not mistakes, receive no mistakes"; "Trust but verify". He wrote my recommendation letter in support of my nomination for my Masters degree and told me to "Go get them" with a big smile. I owe John so many things and for that I will always be very grateful. God bless him. Rest in piece big John.

“ To the VanGels family, please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. John was a pivotal role model and mentor throughout my career at Boeing. His discipline, work ethic and love of people placed him among the iconic leaders of his generation. We owe so much to him and Ina for their love and support. I will cherish the fun times we shared, the lessons in leadership and the importance of true friendship. May he rest in perfect peace.

“ *My heartfelt condolences to your family.
I'm sure a lot of people have told you how wonderful your father was.
He truly was a man that listened to people.
We were in the building 33. Auditorim years ago, and I had asked a question about service anniversary, policy.
His staff did not want me to ask this question and thought it would annoy John.
I asked about having ice cream since it wasn't common policy for everyone,
John said, I can't imagine an anniversary without ice cream.
He was always a straight shooter and didn't brush off people with bogus information
You knew if he told you something, it was the true story, like it or not.
He will always be remembered as a legend in the aerospace industry.
We will all miss this great guy.*

“ John was very hardworking and respected by his coworkers at McDonnell/Boeing. He was heavily involved with the shop floor employees. He was responsible for initiating HPWO (HIGH PERFORMANCE WORK ORGANIZATION) at the company. He always spoke to me in high regard. So sorry to hear this. RIP my friend.

“ I am saddened deeply by this news. My thoughts and memories of John are a remembrance of the leadership strength that often showed itself with intuitive wisdom capable of navigating the complexities of a large organization. John was truly an inspirational leader capable of balancing business and people acumen like no other. I will always remember the impact he had on me personally and the people around him. God bless his family members as they grieve the loss of a great man who will be missed by all of us - we mourn with you.

“ Truly another heart felt moment in the Van Gels family. John will be truly missed by all as he was a legendary person to be around and loved by all. I have many memories of John and the entire family as Jimmy and I were nearly inseparable in our younger years. John always had a good story to tell at family gatherings based on his many travels.

God Bless,

“ Rick, Chris, and family;

I'm very sorry to learn on Sunday about the loss of your Dad. I always had the utmost respect and admiration for your Dad's leadership. Your Dad was such a dedicated leader, mentor, sponsor, and an advocate for so many leaders across the Operations and Supplier Management team. He made a strong imprint on BDS and we were all the better because of your Dad's leadership. Everyone enjoyed your Dad's humor during our site leadership meetings. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

With Sympathy,

Chris Rudolph

“ We are so sorry for your loss . I met VanGels as a young female mechanic on the Long Beach flight ramp. He was so personable, funny, smart and dedicated to me/everyone in the working world and made us all better. At each step in my career after, he helped me and others around me with his amazing knowledge and ‘motivation’ to be better. he made Boeing just work.. He helped us all to help and support each other with clear and concise goals to achieve without politics.. I missed him so much when he retired and miss him even more now. I would love to hear the ‘hug’em or mug’em’ reply direction; or his stories about the families parrot.. He was the most strategically Smartest Operations leader Boeing has ever had (in my 25 years) ..he remembered my name as a young mechanic and supported my development at every step with a personal touch that was just his.. I know he is now helping the Angels work smarter, not harder, in guiding all of us.. Missing you and sending many hugs to Family VanGels- Mary (Wolf) Finnell and Kelly Finnell

“ Chris I am so sorry to hear of your Dads passing. I had a lot of respect for him. When I was a team leader at Boeing we may not of always agreed but we had respect for each other and we never let it stop the progress. He was a very good leader. I know you have a lot of good memories, just hold on to them. We will keep you and your family in our prayers.

“ Chris and Kim, and Rick. I'm saddened to have heard of your pop. It was 1988 the first time I was at your house across from FHN and I encountered John. After work, he relaxed in his chair, he breathed, and we didn't bother him.

Amazing to have seen him "soften" as the years passed, but he was a man to look up to. And he certainly loved your mom! So sorry for your loss.
