“ *The Bill and Jackie Miller family in Washington are so sorry to hear of Aunt June's passing. My mom and dad had so much fun with Aunt June and Uncle Lee! The stories are legendary! (And they still tell them!) We considered them aunt and uncle as they were like family to us. Billy and I remember staying at their house in Washington, and Aunt June is in lots of photos of our many birthday parties holding one of us! (There are five of us so she was at a lot of parties!) My husband and I would run into Aunt June at Schnucks in Ladue on occasion, and she always asked about the family. She was a beautiful lady! So sorry for your loss Donna.
