Tammy was the true love of his life. He finally found happiness with her but wasn't well enough to make the journey beside her. Keith never missed an opportunity to bring everyone close to him laughter and love ... without fail.

We love you and miss you Son....you will never be forgotten.

ME

“ It saddens me with every day that passes- it adds more time to the last time I saw you.

I miss your laugh, your goofy smile, your ridiculous comments and uncanny ability to embarrass me. The overpowering smell of your designer cologne and your horrible sense of style. I miss playing video games with you - and if I beat you - how upset you would get and then of course demand a rematch.

I have a video on my phone from the last time you came to my house to hang out. In the background I can hear your laugh. It's so nice to be able to have captured that moment, and to be able to relive that familiar sound.

I love you and miss you so much. I hope and pray you found peace and happiness brother.

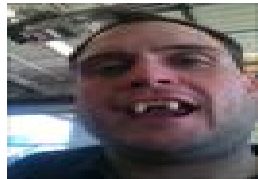

Always and forever.

“ Heaven is not a place for our love ones to go for us to forget. Heaven is a place our love ones go and spread their wings. We let them go so they can live freely in gods kingdom. Remember the good times share the laughter with him and know he is just a whisper away.

Love You All,
Craig

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. We've known Keith since we moved here in 1999. Our kids were friends. This is so tragic and senseless. Will be praying for all of you as you deal with this. No parents should have to bury their children. He won't be forgotten.

“ Keith was the love of my life. He made our relationship fun and exciting and he could always make me laugh which was only one of his greatest assets. He was a loving and caring person and we had planned to spend the rest of our lives together but tragically that is not going to happen. I love him with all my heart and I always will and you will never be forgotten I will see you again one day. I miss you so much.

“ I have known Keith since I was 8 years old... being best friends with Samantha, his younger sister, I generally was at the Livingston house, or calling the Livingston house, everyday. Over the years, Keith found it hilarious to make up different excuses for why Samantha couldn't come to the phone.... my favorites included "Samantha fell off the monkapotamous at the zoo", "Samantha is busy sniffing farts", or the simple "She is gone and never coming back"!!!! followed by hanging up. Keith always enjoyed playing endless pranks on his sisters and I, and loved trying to scare us during sleepovers. Over the years, Keith and I rarely saw eachother, however, once I got sober it seemed as though I ran into him everywhere...we had several heart to hearts about our addictions and the trials in trying to overcome them. The last time I saw Keith we discussed in depth his fears/insecurities/anxieties in regards to trying yet again to stay clean....the nights I prayed for him to find real recovery and a higher power are endless.....words cannot express the sadness I feel in regards to his passing.... Keith was amazing....Addiction is real and takes amazing people like him and makes them sick spiritually and emotionally. I love the Livingston family as I love my own...and while I know the journey forward will not be easy, I know I speak for all of your family and friends when I say we will be carrying you guys in prayer every step of the way. My thoughts and prayers are with you guys in this time of grieving. All my love and sympathy, Erin Murphy
