

Lydia Rombauer Brown

January 13, 1914 - September 8, 2020

LYDIA ROMBAUER BROWN

1914 – 2020 ½

Lydia Rombauer Brown, of St. Louis, passed peacefully of natural causes on September 8, 2020 after nearly 107 years of a full and robust life.

Lydia, born January 13, 1914 in St. Louis, was one of three children of Marie Arendes Meyer and Roderick William Rombauer, Sr. Lydia's brother Roderick and sister Marjorie predeceased her. Lydia was in one of the first graduating class of Villa Duchene School and went on to Briarcliff College. She married John Young Brown, Jr. in 1942, who predeceased her in 2011 after nearly 70 years together. Diddy, as she is affectionally known by family and friends, is survived by a large and loving family including two sons John Young Brown, III (Martha Schmidt); Dixon Rombauer Brown (Marguerite Brogan); seven grandchildren Rebecca, Molly, John, Elsa, Barkley, Hunter and Graham; and, nine great grandchildren Jack, Will, Alex, Patrick, Katie, Lucy, Hunter, Halliden and Lydia.

Private interment will be at Bellefontaine Cemetery with no memorial service. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Carmel of St. Joseph, 9150 Clayton Road, St. Louis, MO 63124.

Family is being serviced by Valhalla Funeral Chapel.

Cemetery Details

Bellefontaine Cemetery

4947 West Florissant Ave.
St Louis, MO 63115

Tribute Wall

BB

“ *Dear Dixon, Midge and Graham,
Thinking about you and wishing you peace and comfort as you remember and celebrate a life well lived. We are very sorry for your loss.
Love and prayers, Buck and Brenda Brogan*

Brenda Y. Brogan - September 13, 2020 at 12:00 AM