

Mae Martin

November 21, 1922 - October 11, 2020

MARTIN, MAE

97, departed this earth to join her Lord and Savior on October 11, 2020.

Mae was the daughter of Henry Handlong and Edna Gerding Handlong, wife of Walter E. Martin, and sister to Marvin Handlong, Jeanette Hamlette and Mary Anne Belcher, all of whom are deceased.

Mae leaves behind to cherish her memory her only son, Thomas Allan Martin, and his long time domestic partner, Elizabeth Ricks, of Houston, Texas.

She was born in Warrenton, Missouri and was retired from Barnes Hospital after 42 years as Director of Admissions.

Mae loved her summer trips to Sister Bay, Wisconsin to visit her dear friends, but most all she loved reading the Bible, reading books about the Bible, and reading books about persons in the Bible. She cherished her time spent teaching and leading Bible studies with Bible Studies Fellowship [BSF].

“ Mae was such a dear sweetheart, always with a smile in her face, and encouraging words spoken from her heart! She was always so well dressed and loved her trips to the Blue Owl Restaurant & Bakery for lunch, with Walter, after church, and with her dear friends from Bible Study! She loved her dearest son so much! She was Near and dear to my heart! Even though I did not see her often recently, I always enjoyed our time together at The Blue Owl. She is surely with her precious Walter, in the heavens above! May you Rest In Peace, precious Mae!
With love and prayers, Mary Hostetter
