

Mark Anthony Christian Ford Jr.

February 21, 1990 - September 7, 2020

Mark Anthony Christian Ford Jr., 30, of Brackenridge Hills, Missouri, passed away on September 7, 2020.

Mark was born in St. Louis, Missouri on February 21st, 1990. He graduated from Ritenour High School. He then went straight into the workforce.

Mark was extremely passionate about skateboarding as his art. He loved any kind of board or recreational vehicle he could ride. He loved all forms of gaming, Fishing, Bowling, Golf, and he loved his family dearly. Mark also found the woman he loved, Caitlin Church, of which they nearly celebrated a 2 year anniversary.

Mark Anthony knew how to light up a room. He had a wonderful smile. If he was there, he had your back. Mark had a way he would make you be his friend. He never kept a grudge and always believed in giving second chances.

Mark was preceded in passing by his grandfather Bryan Hiltibidal, his mother Cheryl Hiltibidal, his niece Zoe Hiltibidal, and his grandfather Billy Ford. Mark is survived by his grandmother Ida Mae Ford, his grandmother Deloris Krauss, his father Mark Ford Sr., his brother Terry Hiltibidal (Jessica), his sister Bobby Speciale (James), and his sister Brandy Hiltibidal, as well as his many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and many close family friends.

Marky will be dearly missed and there will be a celebration of life ceremony on Sunday September 27th from 3:00 PM to 8:00 PM at 370 Lakeside Park St. Peters, Missouri.

Masks are required and social distancing enforced. Anyone not willing or able to abide by these rules may watch Facebook Live.

Valhalla Funeral Chapel handled the arrangements.
