“ I love u grandma I'll never forget your broom, your kitchen, how u always tried to hook me up with all the cute boys ever since I was little, coloring, how u always talked about how many grandkids n great grandkids n great great grandkids u have, u were so proud :) u made the holidays feel like holidays I miss Christmas and Easter and Halloween being with u and grandpa so much. You made my childhood great! The best times of my life were with you and grandpa. I can only hope to be as good as a grandma as u were!!! I miss walking into ur home n smelling ur smell hearing 92 WIL going for rides in ur station wagon with the dogs head bobbing up n down lol there's so much more I could go on n on but I'll never forget u n I'll always love u n grandpa xoxo till we meet again. Please watch over us ???

“ My early memories of Marlene are seeing her almost daily at the neighborhood grocery store about 40-45 yrs. ago when I worked there. She was always a pleasure to see and had something funny to say. Never in a million years would I guess that my brother would marry one of her girls(Gloria). So these past yrs. of seeing her at their home have still been pleasant and whatever came out of her mouth....still funny as hell. This is one lady I'm sure gonna miss..my adopted mom Marlene. Love her and I'm so sad I couldn't take that last ride with her at the funeral. See you on the other side lady.<3 <3
