“ R.I.P brother. I never really got to thank you for helping me out when you were barely making it yourself. You told me that we may not eat some days, but by God we won't be cold! And you were never more right about anything whenever you told me that. I appreciated yourself willingness to be there for me when my life was crumbling. I also value the friendship that we had. We had a lot of goodtimes and alot of very deep conversations that probably would have scared the hell out of most people. Rest easy my friend and know that you will be missed by many.

“ I loved this man with everything I had. There's nothing that he couldn't do, he was incredibly smart and loving when he wanted to be. If he couldn't fix it, it wasn't broke. Day he died my soul was ripped out and my heart shattered.

“ Our deepest sympathies to all family and friends. Mike was a good friend to us. He taught me a few things about cars. We'd have a few beers and a whole lot of laughs. Very sad. R. I. P. Old buddy.
