“ Such fond memories of Mike. We first met at our restaurant in Chesterfield in the '70's (next to Dierberg's). It became a " Cheers" atmosphere with Mike and Phil and the rest of the gang. One funny memory was Mike driving his Cadillac through the parking lot with the song "Tiny Bubbles" blaring out of that car because he heard a commercial Ernie Hays and I did of that song on the radio for the restaurant. Mike was such a 'joke-ster' but never mean. Oh the stories to be told. We also enjoyed many a party, excellent food and endless/interesting poker in the Wendell home. I even remember his cocktail of choice enjoyed at the restaurant(Manhattan with a drop of cherry juice + 2 cherries). Lots of wonderful memories and I am grateful for them. They just passed to quickly. My sincere condolences to the Wendell Family from Sally McGowan (Sherman) and my husband, the late Bob McGowan.
