

Mrs. Pamela Victoria Nyamapfene

October 25, 1949 - March 18, 2015

Pamela Victoria Nyamapfene was born on October 25, 1949 to Jim and Neva [Hicks] Schermerhorn in Coon Rapids, Minnesota.

She was one of four children. Pamela acquired her Bachelor's in English from the University of Missouri-St Louis and her Master's in English from Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville. She spent her 25+ year career at School District #189 in East St Louis.

Her greatest love was her married life. She spent the end of her retirement years at Village North Retirement Community where she enjoyed playing cards with the residents and working at the gift shop. She was well liked by her peers, associates, and family for her wonderful personality and sweet spirit.

Pamela married Edson Muchanetta Nyamapfene and they were married for 40 years. They had four children-one daughter Nyasha and three sons Taurai, Takunda, and Muziwi. Her family will cherish her legacy of love and inspiration.

“ *Pam was a wonderful friend to our sister, Doris Wolfe, while living at Village North.
There was never a day that Pam wasn't upbeat and helpful to Doris.
Pam never complained about a thing. She will truly be missed by many.
Sincerely,
Jerry & Judy Kozenski*
