

Patricia Anne Theodore Bradley

July 1, 1945 - November 29, 2025

Patricia Anne Bradley, 80, passed away on November 29, 2025, and Lewis and Clark Gardens, St. Charles, Missouri.

Pat was born on July 1, 1945, in Chicago, Illinois, to James Francis Theodore and Aura Lena (nee Russell) Theodore Bradley.

Throughout her life, Pat was met with many challenges which she handled with determination and perseverance. As a toddler, she was stricken with polio, which affected her right arm and left leg. She had several surgeries and wore braces for many years. In her later years, she suffered with post-polio syndrome causing her to curtail much of her activities. She spent the last few years of her life at the Lewis and Clark Gardens Nursing Home in St. Charles, Missouri, where she received caring and attentive care.

Pat was a proud 1963 graduate of Ritenour Senior High School and of St. Louis Community College, where she earned her associate's degree in accounting. She worked for several years as an accounting clerk.

Pat was a lifelong music lover and avid reader. She enjoyed doing embroidery and working crossword and word search puzzles. She loved cats, especially her own "fur babies."

Pat was preceded in death by her parents and her stepfather, Raymond M. Bradley. She is survived by her siblings: Michael Bradley of St. Charles, Missouri, Dennis Bradley of Overland, Missouri, and Tereasa Bradley of Gillespie, Illinois; as well as three nieces, two nephews, cousins and friends. Services are pending at this time.
