“ Where do I begin.....it had to be 1962 or 1963 when I met this wonderful lady....Patricia...as she requested I call her...(I always called her Pat but this was her wish).. We were instant friends and she became family....she lived with my family for a short time also....GOD....I LOVED HER LIKE A SISTER!!

I am so glad I visited her years ago, when she was married to Charlie...then again, 4 years ago, she came to my nephew's wedding and I extended my visit!! I am so thankful I managed to catch up, talk, laugh and just enjoy each other's company....

Heaven gained another ANGEL.....R.I.P. my dear friend....sister

Love always,

Dearest Patricia

Our Beloved Red Hat Sister --

All of us will miss seeing & visiting with you at our monthly meetings.

You were such a special person & we loved you dearly.

Praying that you are renewed & whole in God's Heaven and wrapped in the arms of our Lord Christ Jesus.

Until we are all reunited in Heaven, you will be forever loved & never forgotten.

Praying for the comfort of God's healing & strength for all your family and friends.

Rest in Peace Dear Patricia and may God's Perpetual Light shine upon you.

Trish... Thank you for being a truly wonderful person, and such a kind sweet lady in my life, a true friend, and a highly treasured acquaintance that I shall never forget... Thank you for that privilege... You were treasured by so many in this life and had to leave too soon, but the good Lord needed another precious Angel to serve him... You are truly and always missed... Johnny Barnhart...
