

Richard E. Phillips

January 28, 1955 - December 12, 2020

Richard was born in Troy, MO to Harry and Irene [nee Brown] Phillips.

He worked construction most of his life, in both the residential and commercial trades. He loved to play the guitar, jam with other musicians, and attend live concerts. Also Rich enjoyed float trips, and motorcycles, owning many Harley's over the years. He also loved to sing karaoke. He would regularly seek out karaoke bars and was not bashful about getting up and singing songs from his favorite artists.

Survivors include one daughter: Hannah [Ryan] Roettger; one son: Dylan Phillips; two grandchildren: Kindsley and Charlie; two brothers: Stephen [Janine] Phillips and James [Joan] Phillips; two sisters: Sue Hansen and Sarah [John] Caola.

Services are private through Valhalla Chapel.
