“ I had the pleasure of working with Ricky years ago. Not only did he seem to always have a smile on his face but he was very knowledgeable and willing to help with any technical question one might ask of him.

“ This was a real surprise and very sad news. The first time I met Rick was when TWA and OZARK merged. Right away I knew this character, had character. Never a dull moment at work with this man. He was a real card and there was no end to his talent. Sara, your time with Rick may not have been as long as some, but at least you and Rick had some time. May the pool gods keep your aim straight ole buddy. God bless Rick, Sara, and your families. See you later . Larry Cole

“ Rick ... I'm going to miss you. You fought a brave battle against cancer, and I was always amazed at how you still managed to tell great stories and crack jokes the whole way through. I'll remember you as the great uncle who used to record The Who concerts for me on cassette before my dad would buy me one, and take us fishing. I still have that cassette, by the way. Maybe we can listen to it together in Heaven.

“ You will be missed Uncle Rick. In life, you always managed to include a joke , which is the way it should be. I have a lot of great memories with you growing up (a lot of laughs) and I am happy to have been able to reconnect later in life. I admire your resilience and strength in your battle with cancer and as always will be proud to have been named in your honor. Rest in peace Uncle.

“ I can not tell Ricks family how sorry I am to hear of Ricks passing. He never let me know he had these problems. He was a work partner for many years; and a good friend that I will miss greatly. My deepest sympathy for Sarah and all Ricks family. Sincerely Jim McKinzie

My dad also had more children than just the ones mentioned in his obituary. He is also the biological father to Jennifer L. Sutberry, and Craig E. Sutberry. He is also the biological grandfather to Courtney Feiste, Ryan Supinski, Samantha SUTberry, Craig E. Sutberry Jr, and Karleigh L. Sutberry. We will all miss you dad and had someone notified us that you had passed and where you were to be laid out we would have been there. I'm upset that not all of your family was acknowledged in your obit as you have much more family that loves you. Thank you for all the fun memories you have blessed us with from our birth and we will cherish them always. Thank you to his family that didn't mention his biological family or even let us know of his passing so we could attend his funeral. That was really shitty of you and I've never heard of such a thing.

“ I love you with all my heart! You have given our family such amazing years and memories, so blessed you are ours. I will honor your life with happiness and not sorrow. I will help take care of Mom and help hold it together. You were the Love of her Life, your stories and smiles will be cherished and missed. Thank you for the life you gave us and for being such an amazing father and grandfather. Love always and Forever. XOXOXO

“ Uncle Rick, when I was a little girl I used to idolize you. I thought of you as the "cool uncle" who played the drums in a band and was good looking too! As I grew up, you became my uncle that could always make me laugh. You had a unique way of story telling, making everything funny. I do wish that we spent more time together throughout the years but I'm glad for the memories that I have. Once again, I admire you for your strength and courage during your battle with cancer. Rest in Peace now. I love you.

“ Rest In Peace Rick. Your struggle was hard and you have won the battle. You have crossed over where you will suffer no more. You are where the sun always shines, fishing is good, and there is no pain. You are resting in Gods comforting arms.
Love you more!

“ *The best brother you could ever have.
Anytime I ever needed anything he was there.
I still catch myself wanting to call or text him. I will miss him so much. But I'm glad he's not in pain anymore. He's with the lord now watching over us*

“ Words cannot express how deeply saddened I am that you are gone. Even though I am your step-daughter you always treated me like I was your daughter. You have no idea what that meant for me. I'm going to miss our crazy adventures to T-Mobile, Best Buy and the mall! As you would say, I love you with all my heart. You had one tough battle and I am so proud of you for battling it for 4 years. You're my hero . <3

Your last words to me were "I love you" and you have no idea how much I will cherish those words. You have been the best husband, father, brother, grandparent, and friend. Although you may not be here with me, you will always be my best friend, and father. I love you with all my heart Rick and I miss you terribly. & Don't worry, I will take good care of Mom.
