“ My brother Bob.....there is no other like him. Sometimes we had to prepare people before we introduced him to them. He was loud, a jokester of sorts, with a wit that no other could match. Underneath this playful exterior, he was the most kind, thoughtful, and sensitive man. He loved his family more than anything – even fishing. The last memory I have is him fishing on the pond a couple weeks ago with all of his family around – what a day that must have been for him!

I was so happy the day he went into recovery and am thankful for the many more years we were able to share due to his sobriety. I am sure Dad has prepared all those in heaven for his arrival while we are all processing his departure here. You will be greatly missed brother but remain in my heart forever.

*I love you forever and always,
Your Sissy.*
