“ Roger was a dear man and much appreciated as a member of the St. Louis Friends Meeting (Quakers). He and I were hugged in as members on the same day in May in 1990. "Hugging in" is a practice of the St. Louis Friends. It was always a delight on those occasions when Ruth attended with him. I appreciated his tender thoughtfulness, sense of wonder and quiet humor.

“ Roger will be missed greatly, he was a fantastic dad and a dedicated grandfather to his grandchildren. Rest peacefully in the Lord's arms. Love, Jane and Art

Roger was a man of great courage and persistence. His carefully-studied and compassionate faith gave him patience in adversity and full expression of gratitude for blessings. He was dedicated to following what he discerned to be God's will, and I believe he was incapable of unkindness. I am grateful for the life-lessons he taught and honored to be his sister.
