Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me".
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I was truly blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes, we're together again.

“ Well Ronald, I didn't know what to say because when you are home I'm afraid you might answer the phone. I will think of you often, say hi to my Mom & Dad. As I got to know you a little better you were a kind and a gentle giant of a man. There are very few people in life who bring special meaning to our day-to-day lives. You are one of those people. I thank God every day for people like you and your wife, Dianne, who somehow just know simple kindness shared mean so much. You are dearly missed. Much love to all! Phyllis
