

Shirley J. Brown

November 22, 1951 - May 30, 2026

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Shirley J. Brown, beloved mother, friend, and cherished member of the community. Shirley was born on November 22, 1951, and she departed this life peacefully on May 30, 2026.

Shirley dedicated her life to helping others and was a steadfast member of the Jehovah's Witnesses community. Her faith guided her in everything she did and served as a source of strength and inspiration for all who had the privilege of knowing her. Known for her warm spirit and generous heart, Shirley had a gift for connecting with people. She truly loved engaging in conversations, sharing her insights, and making everyone feel welcome.

A passionate gardener, Shirley found joy and fulfillment in nurturing her plants, watching them grow and blossom just as she nurtured the relationships in her life. Her creativity shone through in her many crafts, reflecting her artistic spirit and love for beauty in all things.

Shirley is survived by her son, Jeremy (Sally) Sneed of Missouri; granddaughter, Carter; brother, Horace W. Brown, Jr. of Texas; sisters: Jacqueline Brown, Marilyn Townson and Ivy Ware, all of Missouri. She was preceded in death by her parents: Horace and Fannie B. (Jackson) Brown; and sister, Lurlean Holbrook.

Cremation has been accorded by Valhalla Funeral Chapel, Crematory and Cemetery, 7600 St. Charles Rock Road, St. Louis, Missouri, 63133.

As we say goodbye to Shirley J. Brown, let us remember her kindness, her unwavering faith, and the love she radiated so effortlessly. She will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege to know her.
