

Steven Alan Sisk Jr.

December 19, 1979 - February 7, 2021

Steven was born in St Louis, Missouri to Steven and Norma Jean Sisk.

He loved fishing and camping, and tried to rescue any animal that needed his help.

Survivors include his daughter: Leah Waterman; two brothers: Joseph Schmidt and Charles Brown;

one sister: Victoria [Matt] Stolte; and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will held at a later date, and will be announced by Valhalla Chapel.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a Memorial contribution to the Steven A. Sisk Memorial Fund.

Tribute Wall

LW

“ I can't believe this. I miss you so much dad.

Leah Waterman - February 09, 2021 at 11:49 AM

LO

“ Bubba what can i say we have be through alot since we were kids hanging out and trying to stay out of trouble for the most part but i always loved you no matter what until we meet again little brother
♥️ Lorraine

Lorraine - February 08, 2021 at 03:53 PM

RH

Little Steve RIP haven't seen you since you were just alittle boy or your family either, love you, may God look over your family , Love Rhonda Heberer

Rhonda Heberer - February 09, 2021 at 02:04 PM

VI

“ I know we didn't always get along growing up but I always loved you. I'll think of all the times we went camping and our crazy adventures. Until we meet again little brother. ♥️

Vicky - February 08, 2021 at 02:45 PM

KA

he loved camping

kalli - February 08, 2021 at 05:54 PM

SW

I'm sorry. I am really sorry.

Susan Worth - February 09, 2021 at 11:42 AM

RH

I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my brother David in 2010 and my only son in February 26, 2019.

Rhonda Heberer - February 09, 2021 at 02:07 PM

TS

That was one of our favorite things to do I miss u n love u bubba fly high I'll see u again one day my love

Tiffany Stroud - July 11, 2021 at 02:41 AM