“ Steve and I were schoolmates beginning in 1962, when I learned to appreciate his wry sense of humor. I cast him as the butler, "Jarvis" in my class play, 'The Missing Painting, or, The Killing of the Mona Pizza' . He wrote a 'Wierd Al"-type of song, which he performed in 1964 Speech class: Peter & Gordon's " World Without Love". Ask me to sing it when we get together at the next Maplewood-Richmond Heights Senior High School Class of 1968 reunion. May the grace and mercy of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ be with us all.
