“ So sorry to hear about Susie. My sister Merrily and I have many fond memories of the Church of the Open Door in Webster where both our parents were long time members. Our sympathy to the Clay family. Sandy (Hofmeister) Geissler

“ Oh, my Dear Susie: College in '67 and many years of being roomies in Kansas City. Virgil bringing us those Pez candies. We could have retired earlier had we saved the dispensers. You were my Bestest @ my wedding. Bud and I loved you and you were/are a part of this family. I hope you are flying high on a wonderful horse riding into the horizons in Wyoming. You are truly free now. God has provided you with rest and peace. God Bless you my dear, dear friend. Looking forward to seeing you again.

I meet her when I was 16 teen. I knew her as a very special friend during the hard times and the specials time.

She was special through my life.

“ Sue was masterful at handling the tasks that came her way at Webster Hills. She was a beam of light and grace in this world. We will miss her greatly. It's wonderful to have these pictures to remind us of the spirit that inspired ourselves and many others.

“ Sue was a remarkable woman and friend. To be in a work environment where your boss can be different every year, Sue always was a light in the church office. I will miss her greatly
