“ Dear Family & Friends, we truly have lost an amazing woman- a woman I call great-grandma. She has always been a blessing to me and I am very blessed to have had her in my life. I really feel like I am speaking for everyone who knew her- she was fun. I enjoyed being goofy with her and the time she invested in me when I was younger. In fact, she invested time into all of us kids growing up. Banana pancakes and sleep overs, card games for hours. Lots of laughs and good advice. I have yet to find a better story teller. She prank called me a lot- which was always hilarious. When I would laugh and say-grandma, I know it is you-She would always say, "Oh that caller-id, you have it don't you! I always get caught!" I remember her teaching us how to hula after she got back from a vacation in Hawaii. I remember so many goofy sayings and phrases she said- she always knew how to make us laugh. I can say so many things about her but I'll end this post with a few phrases that always made me chuckle:

-Growing old is not for sissies!

-You better get over here girl or I'll smack your dupa! (When asking for a hug/kiss)

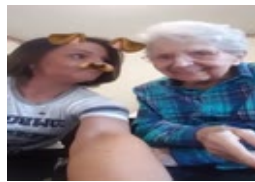

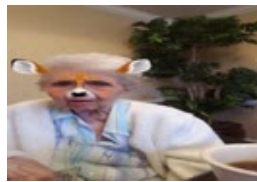

-Oh don't say that- I'll whack ya with wet noodles!
