

Virginia Lee Macrum

October 12, 1937 - October 29, 2020

Virginia was born in St Louis to Robert and Marie [nee Bruns] Hinkson.

She married William Macrum in 1955. She loved to be outside, whether gardening, planting flowers, feeding the birds, playing golf or traveling the world [including Greece, England, South America, and many other popular destinations]. When not outside, she was content with knitting, crocheting, and attending Affton Christian Church, Disciples of Christ. Her life's work involved owning and operating the family business, Beldt's Aquarium in Hazelwood, and she retired as the Chief Financial Officer for Feed My People Food Bank.

Survivors include three children: Rebecca (Keith) Pfeiffer, Robert (Rhonda) Macrum, and Teresa (Geoff) Cole/Schaefer;

thirteen grandchildren:

Brian (Susan) Pfeiffer; Kelly Pfeiffer; Danielle (Michael) Conn; Heather (Jim)Vidal; Holly Bissell; Hillary Pfeiffer; Hannah Pfeiffer; Cathy Tharp; Lauren Pfeiffer; and Matthew Pfeiffer. Ryan Macrum, Stephanie Cole; Shawn Cole;

twenty-six great-grandchildren:

“ We lived in the same neighborhood for years and then years later when I know longer lived there I so enjoyed seeing her every month when I served a Feed My People. I had no idea she had passed Prayers to the family. She was such a great lady. Scott Hagar

“ My sincere condolences to all the family. Ginny was a lovely lady inside and out. She always had a kind smile. I enjoyed our conversations together. She loved to read and she gave me a bundle of paperbacks to enjoy. We both loved flowers and gardening. She gave me some good tips. I have enjoyed living in the same condo building as her upstairs neighbor. Rest in Peace my friend.

*Sincerely,

“ We have played hundreds of rounds of golf with Ginny and have taken many golf trips with her. On one trip we were staying at a casino outside Biloxi Mississippi. Every evening the guys would want to go to the casino to gamble. Ginny was setting next to me at a slot machine and I hear her say oh damn. Ginny didn't cuss so I asked her what was wrong. She said I won again now I'll have to play longer. She was probably the only person in that casino that was upset because she won. Ginny was a very dear friend of mine and I will truly miss her.
