“ One month ago today Mom, I still can't believe you're not here with all of us. You were part of our lives every day. I miss seeing you and Layla playing or you having your jello at the table. I love and miss you and Dad and Steve so much!

“ Mom, I miss you so much. You were so many things to all of us. It is hard to imagine that I can get by without you. I love you now and always. I always told you, no matter how old I get, I will always need my mom. You were just so special. All through our lives you put Dad and us before you. You were always strong, you never failed to be Mom. Right now I just want to touch you again, talk to you again, tell you I love you again, make you a grilled cheese again. But, if I could do that, it would never match the billions of things you did for all of us. You just could not have been a better mom. You could not be more loved than you are by all of us. Right now I feel like my world has ended in so many ways. Mom, please rest now, with no pain, no worries, just love from Dad and Steve, your parents, all who you loved that went before you. I am sure you already have your wings. And, as Kathy wrote, you really were the wind beneath our wings. Pat and I will never forget your love and kindness, your friendship, your cooking and you just being you. We will see you again, Mom, but we sure miss you here.

Love you so much,
Terry & Pat

“ Mom, I can't believe you're gone. I love you and miss you so much. You were absolutely the best Mom I could ever have had. The best Grandma for our kids, and the best Great Grandma for their kids. The list goes on and on. We all were so blessed and lucky to have you in our lives. You were always there for me and anyone else that needed help. I could always talk to you about anything going on my life, good or bad. I don't care how old I got, I still needed my Mom and still do. It's unbearable to think of this life without you; you, Dad, and Steve. I will cherish my memories of you Mom with Layla. I can see Layla getting so excited to see you and going and grabbing all of her books and toys and bringing them to you to read and play with. She would have piles of toys all around you. I will cherish my memories of having breakfast and us both listening to my beautiful songs for Steve together. I will cherish all of my memories of you and Dad and Steve forever. I know Dad and Steve were right there waiting for you in Heaven when you arrived. Me, Amanda, and Layla have alot of guardian angels watching over us. You were and always will be the most amazing, beautiful woman to me. We all love and miss you so much words can't describe it, our hearts are broken. This is not goodbye Mom, this is "until we meet again". You are the wind beneath my wings. I LOVE YOU Kathy
